

E-9 MATERIAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

SCHOOL BOOK STORES

The various schools of the Plainfield Community School Corporation are entitled to operate school book stores for the convenience and benefit of their students. Items for sale shall be limited to such instructional items as pens, pencils, erasers, paper, etc., not otherwise readily accessible to students. The high school Distributive Education (DECA) program may, for training purposes, expand the items at the high school bookstore as permitted by the administrators. Funds from said book stores shall be handled through the schools extracurricular account as prescribed by the State Board of Accounts.

Specialty items shall not be sold if they are readily available locally at reasonable prices.
