

J-15 STUDENT CONDUCT

All student behavior in the Plainfield Community School Corporation is based on respect and consideration for the rights of others.

The Board endorses the following principles of student conduct:

1. Respect for the law and those given the authority to administer it shall be required of all students. This includes conformity to school rules as well as general provisions of the law regarding minors.
2. Respect for the rights of others and consideration of their privileges shall be expected of all students.
3. Respect for real and personal property, pride in one's work, achievement within the range of one's ability, and exemplary personal standards of courtesy, decency, honesty, and wholesome attitudes shall be maintained.
4. Respect for individual worth to the end that every student shall be assisted to the limit of his ability is an obligation of the school. Diligence and a sincere desire to profit from the opportunity offered is an obligation of the student.
5. Students have a responsibility to know and respect the rules and regulations of the school.

The Board expects student conduct to be such as to contribute to a productive learning climate. Individual rights are to be honored and protected in all instances; however, the rights of one individual shall not take precedence over those of another individual or of the group itself, and all students shall have equal rights and equal responsibilities in their demeanor in the classroom or on any school property.

SOURCE: Plainfield Community School Corporation
Plainfield, IN
ADOPTED: 06/12/79
REVISED: 05/10/90